PADUCAH, KY., TUESDAY EVENING, JULY 7, 1909

TEN CENTS PER WEEK

TAX COMMISSION WILL MEET AGAIN EARLY TOMORROW

Nine O'clock in Council Chamber Time and Place for Conference.

Business Men Will Find Cool Spot to Talk.

TWO MEMBERS ARE PRESENT.

Owing to a misunderstanding, the tax commission did not meet at the city hall until 1:30 o'clock this afternoon, instead of this morning as announced. A number of citizens called at the city hall this morning. Consequently, the meeting was postponed until 9 o'clock tomorrow morning in the council chamber. The meeting will be over before the state bar association meets.

Hon. William Mackoy, of Covington, and W. B. O'Connell, of Frankfort, secretary of the commission, and Hon. John K. Hendrick will conduct the meeting, in which no set speeches will be made, but everybody will be allowed to express his sentiments and ask questions in conference.

The large council chamber, with windows on three sides, is one of the coolest places in the city, and it is expected many merchants will find it convenient to take off and hour in the morning to attend.

The commission makes this statement:

"The tax commission and the advisory commission, appointed by the governor of Kentucky to make an investigation as to our revenue system and to obtain information as to the systems now used in other states, are desirous of doing this work thoroughly.

"We believe that our present system is not generally satisfactory, and in the minds of many of our most progressive citizens is not only unsatisfactory as to the revenue produced for the state, but is so adjusted as to, in some directions, to be an actual hindrance to the development of Kentucky.

"We, therefore, are desirous of obtaining from the good citizens of our own state, suggestions which may aid us in a wise revision of the plan of raising revenue, and respectfully invite suggestions as to how our revenue laws may be improved. We request that such be typewritten and sent at the earliest date possible to the secretary of the joint bodies, Mr. W. B. O'Connell, at Frankfort, Ky.

"We are also desirous, as far as possible, to give public hearings in different sections of the state, and, if invited to do so, will endeavor to arrange to have representatives of the tax commission and the advisory commission attend at such time and place as may be mutually convenient.

Mr. Bishop recently offered $250 to each of the first four aviators flying five-eighths of a mile. The Wrights have not competed for the prize, and Mr. Curtiss is the first to comply with the conditions.

The contests were held under the auspices of the Aeronautic society of New York, recently organized for the promotion of aviation. Fifteen thousand persons were present. Curtiss' elevation as he sailed over the ground was about thirty feet, and the aeroplane maintained a speed of about thirty-five miles an hour.

Few Fourth of July Fires.
Celebration of the Fourth resulted in light work for the fire department although Chief Wood had his men on edge to answer all alarms quickly. This morning about 3 o'clock hose companies Nos. 1 and 3 and truck company No. 4 were called to the residence of Collins Thompson, colored, 1018 Washington street, by a fire in the attic. The roof in the rear was burned off with a loss of about $100. The origin of the blaze is unknown.

SMEDLEY TRYING TO SET FIRE TO HIS CELL IN JAIL

The actions of Hiram Smedley continue to puzzle the county officials. This morning he started two fires in his cell, but deputy Jailer Patillo Kirk saw the flames and extinguished the fire before any damage was done. Smedley is given matches with which he heats the morphine injections. This is the third fire he has started and the jail officials are compelled to watch his cell closely.

He tries to destroy everything in his cell. He has torn several sheets into strips, and suspended bottles out of the cell window. He tries to destroy his bedding. Dr. Young has examined him frequently, and thinks that his actions are due to the influence of the morphine tablets.

He says crimes are being perpetrated in the East St. Louis stock yards, the most dastardly in the history of the United States. He will reply to the committee's alleged "whitewash" report in a few days.

San Francisco, July 6.—Papke friends brand the decision of yesterday's fight as "robbery pure and simple." Apparently more than half those expressed the opinion if there was a shade of difference it belonged to Papke. The fight was a disappointment. The opinion was freely expressed on the showing made that neither man is of heavy weight calibre. Ketchell has a fractured bone of his right wrist, and a dislocated thumb, and his fight with Jim Flynn is called off. He is going to the mountains to recuperate. The receipts are not announced. STEEL TRUST WILL FIGHT WITH UNIONS

Pittsburgh, Pa., July 6.—That the steel trust considers the tie severed between itself and the striking employees is indicated today by the action of paying promptly all wages due, instead of taking the usual two weeks to make up the payrolls. Preparations are made to operate the New Castle and Sharon plants with non-union men.

Stockades are being built and switches put in so they can back passenger trains into the plants direct. Strikers' pickets are doubled. Ten furnaces at Sharon are hot. The mill was lighted last night. No strike breakers are here yet, but they are expected soon.

WEATHER

Showers tonight and probably Wednesday, warmer in central and east portion. Highest temperature yesterday 93, lowest 73.

NO ONE SEEMS TO KNOW ABOUT THE LONG RACE MEET

County Officials Say They Will Do Their Utmost to Stop Bookmaking.

Local Association Has No Connection.

SOME CITIZENS TAKE HAND.

All sorts of rumors surround the scheduled 21 days' race meet, which was to begin July 8. The Paducah association leased the fair ground track for the racing season, but further than that has nothing to do with the meet, except that it has stipulated in the contract that the first shady transaction will forfeit the lease. The management of the meet agreed to that and assured the local people the whole thing is legitimate.

However, a number of business and professional men concluded that the meet would not be a good thing for Paducah and they advised with County Attorney Barkley and Sheriff Ogilvie about stopping it, and notice was served on the local association, which brought out the information that the association has nothing to do with it further than to make sure of a square deal.

The program of the races has never been published, but it is understood running races will be the principal events. Mr. Barkley said that a state permit from the racing commission is necessary for them and track-side bookmaking is not allowed. He has served notice that he will prosecute any violations of this law. He also said that in some states, although the point has never been made in Kentucky, racing without a permit is a nuisance and can be enjoined. He did not state what steps he will take to stop the meet. Sheriff Ogilvie has announced that he is in hearty accord with the county attorney and he will have a force of deputies on hand to arrest every violator for the least offense.

It is asserted that wires will connect with pool rooms in the cities, which will profit by the meet here. This is denied, it is said. In this connection a special from Frankfort says that telephone companies in Kentucky, which have been furnishing reports of races to Jeffersonville, Ind., pool rooms will be prosecuted.

All Burn to Death

South Boston, Va., July 6.—H. P. Strange, 75 years old, and five children ranging in ages from eighteen months to fourteen years, lost their lives when a defective fuse caused the burning of the home of S. E. Hamlet. One child was thrown from the second story windows. Others were burned to death.

Sugar Men Plead

New York, July 6.—The American Sugar Refining company and its officers, indicted by the federal grand jury for conspiracy to restrain trade, appeared in court this morning and entered a formal plea of not guilty. Judge Hand allowed all the defendants two weeks to withdraw their plea and file demurrers to the original indictment if they choose. Assistant District Attorney Grime asked that the bonds be fixed at $10,000, but the judge paroled the defendants in custody of their counsel.

Woman Murdered

New York, July 6.—An unidentified woman was found beaten to death in the doorway of a tenement early today. Police believe she was dragged into the hallway and attacked. Bloody footprints led to a nearby saloon, where Baljo Calla, the proprietor's son, was arrested. He denies knowledge of the crime. The only clew is a watchman saw a suspicious man leave the hallway and meet five others. They had a long talk and went to a soda fountain and asked permission to wash their hands which were bloody.

BOULEVARD MEETING SCHEDULED TUESDAY

Mayor Smith has called a meeting of the general council, park board and owners of property along the route of the boulevard on South Tenth street to see if they cannot agree on a price for the land necessary to make the street 100 feet wide. It is complained that one or two property owners put the price at an exorbitant figure, and the whole project, with its accompanying benefits to these property owners, is in danger of falling through.

SMILED

As They Floated Over the Dam to Death.

South Bend, Ind., July 6.—An unknown man and woman in a rowboat went over the dam of the St. Joe river yesterday. They paid no attention to warnings of many people in the adjacent park. Both were smiling and the man stood up and lighted a cigaret as they approached the dam.

The couple are supposed to be Herman Lindemann, 25 years old, of Chicago, and his bride, who arrived Sunday to stay several days at a local hotel. They left a number of Chicago addresses and a suit case at the hotel. This with their conduct when warned by the spectators on the bridge and shore, are grounds for the belief they premeditated a double suicide.

Chicago, July 6.—Relatives of the Lindemanns scout the suicide theory, and say they believe it was an accident. The tragedy came within 36 hours after their marriage. The girl was Ella Zister. The couple left Saturday by boat and it is supposed they went to St. Joe and got married and then went to South Bend.

Policeman Is Killed.

Chicago, July 6.—Policeman Jas. Dozier was killed with a rifle early this morning by his brother-in-law, Isaiah Holt, who with Dozier's wife upbraided him for returning late from a Fourth of July celebration. The shot also accidentally wounded the woman.

Night Rider Cases Go Over.

Union City, Tenn., July 6.—That the decision of the supreme court reversing the night rider cases and remanding them to this county for new trial will not result in the forty accused men, who are now in jail, securing their liberty is evidenced by the announcement made by Judge Joseph E. Jones from the bench this afternoon, in which he postponed the trials until the fall term of court, which begins in September.

TELEPHONE CASE ARGUMENTS WILL BE HEARD FURTHER

The suit of the city and the East Tennessee Telephone company, which the city contends has no franchise in Paducah, was not decided in federal court this morning, where Federal Judge Evans heard arguments of counsel. The case went over until 9 o'clock tomorrow morning. W. T. Granberry, of Nashville, and Hon. Charles K. Wheeler represented the company, and City Solicitor James Campbell, Jr., and Hal Corbett the city. Judge Evans said if the city would agree to a certain state of facts alleged by the company he would decide the case without further discussion. The city declined.

CONDUCTOR V. P. CULLOM BURIES BROTHER TODAY.

St. Joseph, Mo., July 6.—Six inches of rain fell in Nodaway county in less than four hours last night. The estimated damage is a half million. It is feared three other young men unaccounted for also perished.

Alleged Strike Grafter

Chicago, July 6.—Martin B. Madden, president of the Associated Building Trades, and Fred A. Pouchot, former business agent of the Sheet Metal Workers, will be arraigned today on charges of extortion in calling and settling strikes. They are accused of extorting $1,500 from the Jewel Tea company during a strike last fall. There are a number of similar indictments.

GEORGE FREEMAN'S MEMORY IS GREEN WITH HUGE BILL

County Could Have Killed Him More Cheaply Than He Did It.

Real Tombstone Proposed for Pauper Dead.

FISCAL COURT IN SESSION.

Allowance of accounts was the principal business before the fiscal court, which met in regular session this morning, and little other business was before the magistrates. Bills rolled in from every quarter.

George Freeman is responsible for the disbursement of $324 by the county. Constable A. C. Shelton was allowed $50 for the erection of the scaffold, while $75 was allowed the Louisville Research Laboratory for the analysis of the stomach. Drs. Horace Rivers and W. J. Bass were allowed $25 each for assisting County Physician Young in the effort to save the negro's life, and Dr. R. C. Gore was allowed $2 for a visit to the county sanitarium while Dr. Young was working with the negro. A bill for tubes of oxygen amounts to $12 and Dr. Nollau was allowed $20 for conveying the stomach to Louisville. Mrs. Grace Henderson was allowed $5 for taking the evidence. This is exclusive of the regular fees.

A bill of Schmans Brothers for $360 for flowers furnished to decorate the court house yard was allowed over the protest of Magistrate F. P. Gholson. County Judge Lightfoot stated that during the last six years the county had expended at least $1,216 for flowers and he considered the money well spent.

Road Committee.
Magistrate Emery reported that the road committee had decided to locate the new Clark's river bridge four feet west of the present bridge. Mrs. C. H. Brooks will permit her land to be used for a right of way, and will donate dirt to make a fill. Mr. Bichon, on the opposite side of the river, agreed to sell the necessary land for the assessed value. The court concurred in the report.

It was decided to gravel the Oaks station road when the residents contribute $3,500. A paper is being circulated by the land owners and in a short time it will be presented to the court. The road is an important highway in the county.

R. C. Potter and T. H. Torian were awarded the contract for graveling Twenty-eighth street from the Mayfield road to the Hinkleville road for 25 cents a lineal foot. W. L. Yancy was awarded the contract for the erection of a small concrete culvert on the street for $175. S. B. Gholson offered to gravel the street for 27 1/2 cents a foot, and George A. Gardner offered to erect the culvert for $283.

The salary of the county health officer was fixed at $500 a year. Dr. Horace Rivers holds the position. Magistrate Dunaway reported he has purchased a right of way on the Houser road from Mrs. Minnie Haggin for $50, and asked that William Jones be paid $18 for the destruction of his crop, planted on the new road. The court ratified the report and ordered payment when the deed is filed.

Small tombstones will be erected at every grave in the county cemetery. W. S. Downs was allowed $66.05 for the tombstones. The county treasurer filed his report, which was received and filed by the court. In the road fund there is a balance of $3,244.11, and in the county levy fund a balance of $3,873.76.

County Judge Lightfoot presided over the meeting and Magistrates Emery, Gholson, Brooks, Knott, Burnett, Dunaway, Bleich and Broadfoot were present.

Don Stophlet, the Chicago University runner, carrying the colors of the local Y. M. C. A., ran a mile in 4:30 1-5, winning the event and setting up a new mark. In the five mile race George Dunning, an English runner, who went under K. C. A. C. colors, made a mark of 28 minutes 12 1-2 seconds. In the discus throw A. M. Kanatzer, a local high school boy, entered for the K. C. A. C., hurled the oval 121 feet 10 inches, shattering the western record held by Hans Wulff, of St. Louis, for seven years. In points Kansas City led in the scoring.

Louisville Tobacco Review.
Louisville, July 6.—The local leaf tobacco market continues dull and featureless. The movement showed no appreciable change during the past week. The hot and dry weather was just what the farmer needed and reports from all sections were very favorable.

There was a slight increase in offerings of burley on the local breaks. The quality was decidedly better than for several weeks, there being some fresh lots of good quality and the condition on the whole was fairly good. The demand, however, continued at a low ebb, especially for the better grades of red leaf, and the market showed no quotable change.

Offerings of dark aggregated 341 hogsheads. The quality was only fair and the condition was below the average. There was a good demand for decided manufacturing types and extra long leaf and prices for these ruled firm, but there was little interest shown for offerings of other grades of air-cured leaf and values ruled easier to lower. Lugs showed no change. There was a fair demand for export leaf in good condition, but there was very little doing for leaf in poor condition. All grades of fired lugs were in good demand.

Private sales of dark consisted for the most part of sampling of tobacco belonging to the Italian Regie.

Sales for the week were 488 hogsheads by auction and 598 privately, the total of 1,086 comparing with 1,568 in the corresponding week last year, 776 in 1907 and 1,213 in 1906. From January 1, including this week, sales were 48,407 hogsheads, against 79,201 during the corresponding period last year, 77,574 in 1907 and 96,227 in 1906. Receipts for the week were 1,278 hogsheads, against 1,436 last year and 1,255 in 1907.

A Promise to Pay

Would you accept a stranger's note? No. Then why accept from a stranger any other promise to pay? A Fire Insurance policy is such a promise. Ought you to accept it without knowing all about the Company? Your usual business confidence is based on knowledge. Why make an exception in that part of your business which deals with insurance? A name is worth nothing on any kind of a promise to pay unless it is backed by character and resources.

We favor insurance knowledge, particularly about our companies. Their promises to pay have never gone to protest. Their obligations to its policy holders are backed with such a good reputation and such ample financial resources that the more you know about them the more you will want protection by their policies.

Temptation for the Smugglers.
The Chinese population of the United States are outside the general classification. They number nearly 120,000, and fifty per cent are opium smokers. There has been a reduction of about 40 per cent in the sale of proprietary medicines containing opiates since the national pure food and drug laws and the state and city laws based thereon have been passed, and it is to be hoped that the law governing importations will have an even greater reducing and restraining effect upon the traffic and use. But there is going to be an unusual temptation to the smuggler. If he can evade the law he knows that there is a desperate need which will part with its most cherished possessions to patronize his wares. So far as possible there should be international co-operation to keep the trade strictly within legitimate limits.—Boston Transcript.

KETCHELL GETS THE DECISION

AT END OF TWENTY ROUND BOUT WITH PAPKE.

Ketchell Aggressor, Landed More Telling Blows, Blood Flowed Freely.

MINGLED CHEERS AND DERISION

Albany, San Francisco, July 6.—Stanley Ketchell, of Michigan, is still the world's middle weight champion. In a desperate battle, during which the champion was constantly on the aggressive, he was awarded the decision over Billy Papke, of Illinois, at the end of the twentieth round—the scheduled number. Ketchell broke his right hand in the sixth round. His left thumb also was dislocated. Referee Roche gave the decision to Ketchell on his aggressive work and the fact that he landed oftener and cleaner. Ketchell forced the fighting from the tap of the initial gong and with the exception of the third round enjoyed a clean lead in the first half of the battle. In the eleventh Ketchell landed time and again with ponderous lefts and try as he would he could not find the vital place. Both men were bleeding freely at this stage of the battle. Papke in particular spouting blood from his mouth and nose until the center of the ring resembled a shambles.

The feature of the fight was the extreme viciousness with which both men fought and the apparent hatred that lurked behind every punch.

First Round.
Ketchell opened with a right smash to the stomach and after some wrestling Ketchell duplicated the blow. Breaking from a clinch Ketchell upset his left to the jaw. The referee experienced great difficulty in separating the men from clinches. Ketchell suddenly hooked a succession of right and left swings on the body and head and the "Thunderbolt" sought refuge in a clinch.

The second round was practically a duplicate of the first except that Papke got in a vicious left to the jaw.

Third Round.
The third was Papke's though both did some hard hitting. Ketchell's mouth was bleeding as he took his corner.

The fourth saw Ketchell hammering his opponent frequently, though nothing serious resulted.

Clinches characterized the fifth, and while both men fought every inch of the way and Papke was forced against the ropes he seemed to have the advantage.

The sixth was lively, both men landing often. Twice Ketchell forced Papke against the ropes and once the men forced each other so fiercely that both fell to the floor.

Seventh and Eighth.
The seventh and eighth were even, though Ketchell's face was bloody at the end of the eighth. Ketchell did his best work so far in ninth, landing frequent rights and lefts and starting blood in a stream from Papke's mouth.

The effect of Ketchell's work in the ninth was seen in the tenth at the close of which Papke looked beaten and took a great deal of punishment. Papke came up bravely in the eleventh, but Ketchell went after him hammering his opponent mercilessly and striving for a knockout, which he was unable to land.

Papke recovered in the twelfth and though Ketchell went after him viciously he landed a staggering blow. Ketchell came back and received a good deal the worst of the fighting.

Papke was fighting strong at the opening of the thirteenth and as the round progressed gained confidence.

There was little punishment on either side, but whatever advantage there was, was in Papke's favor.

The fourteenth and fifteenth rounds were practically featureless, but the sixteenth saw some fast work. Their blows, however, were without result.

17th and 18th Papke's.
The seventeenth and eighteenth were Papke's by a fair margin. In the former he staggered Ketchell with a straight left to the jaw and in the latter did such effective work that Ketchell seemed to weaken.

In the nineteenth Papke landed a right on Ketchell's jaw with such force that he staggered half way across the ring and followed it up with a vicious clip to the chin.

Final Round.
In the final round Ketchell fought desperately to land a telling punch but Papke rocked his head with two rights in quick succession on the point of the chin. Ketchell rushed the "Thunderbolt" against the ropes, seeking vainly to find the vital spot, but Papke smothered all his attempts. At this stage neither man appeared capable of landing a knockout. Ketchell rushed his man around the ring mainly with the force of his body. The round ended with Papke in a neutral corner and Ketchell hammering away right and left. Referee Roche promptly declared Ketchell the victor on points. The decision was received with mingled cheers and derisive shouts.

Thompson Wins.
Chicago, July 6.—"Cyclone" Johnny Thompson won his fight with Danny Goodman at Hammond, Ind., knocking Goodman out in the tenth round.

MRS. Z. H. BRYANT

DIES AS THE RESULT OF A LONG-GERING ILLNESS.

Devout Woman, a Good Wife and Mother and Kind Neighbor Passes Away.

After an illness of two years' duration, Mrs. Mary J. Bryant, wife of Mr. Z. H. Bryant, of 521 North Fourth street, died last night. The end came peacefully and she was conscious until the last. Her husband and children were at her bedside when her soul departed. Mrs. Bryant was born near Gainesboro, Tenn., April 30, 1840. Her name was Mary Jane Sadler, and in October, 1865, she was married to Z. H. Bryant. They came to Paducah 33 years ago, 33 years ago.

Mrs. Bryant was 69 years old and had been a patient sufferer. She had been for several years so feeble that she could not leave her home. She was a devout Christian woman and endeared herself to a wide circle of friends. She was a life-long member of the Methodist church.

Her life began to ebb away late Monday and she called the members of her family to her bedside to bid them farewell.

She was the mother of seven children, one having died about ten years ago. She is survived by her husband, the well known clothier, and six children, all of this city: Mrs. H. G. Thompson, Mrs. Harry L. Fisher, Miss Minnie Bryant, Messrs. S. G. Bryant, William Bryant and Zach Bryant. She leaves two aged sisters, one residing in Missouri and one in Tennessee, and also one brother, who lives in Tennessee.

The funeral will be held this afternoon at 5 o'clock at the house, to which all friends are invited. The funeral services will be conducted by the Rev. G. T. Sullivan, of the Broadway Methodist church.

The burial will be in accordance with Mrs. Bryant's dying request and will be held at 8 o'clock Wednesday morning for the members of the family only. The pallbearers will be: Messrs. Joe Wright, Herman Wall-stein, Frank Smith, Charley Hall, Joe Potter and Thomas Crice.

GAME WENT TO FULTON

Mounds Lost By Score of 3 to 1—Errors Prove Costly.

Cairo, Ill., July 6.—Mounds was downed by Fulton, the score standing 3 to 1 in favor of the former team. The game was witnessed by from 1,200 to 1,500 people, the largest crowd that ever attended any game here this season. Halliday who was on the firing line for Mounds, pitched winning ball but had poor support in the infield, the game going to Fulton on errors. The teams have broken even on games played this season, Sunday's game being won by Mounds by a score of 3 to 2. Another game will be played later to decide the season's honors and no doubt will be a fast and exciting game. Murphysboro will cross bats with Mounds next Sunday. This aggregation of ball tossers defeated Mounds in the early part of the season and no doubt will play hard to take another game from them.

Daily Thought.

"Every man must buy the riches of experience with his own coin."

PADUCAH AND HER RIVERS

The Evening Sun has had much to say in times past of the certain development of the south, through the attraction of trade thitherward by the Panama canal; and we foresaw the rush of railroads for New Orleans connections; and emphasized the advantage Paducah would enjoy, could the Ohio, Cumberland and Tennessee rivers be made navigable at all times their whole lengths. We could not, of course, accurately outline the route of railroads southward, and the certainty of the Burlington, and other lines representing the Hill and Gould systems, coming through Paducah is an added and unforeseen blessing commercially and industrially. Paducah is sure to take her place as an important railroad center, and as our oriental trade develops and the Panama canal carries more and more of the commerce for Pacific ports, Paducah, with trunk lines spreading east and west, north and south, paralleled all their way to the deposits of raw material—iron, coal, cotton, wool, sand and clay—by the rivers, is a natural assembling point and bound to be a manufacturing as well as a wholesale center.

The Ohio, Cumberland and Tennessee, flowing past the city into the Mississippi, assure Paducah of such rate concessions as water navigation competing with railroads can compel. Therefore, it is not less, but more important, since Paducah is to become a railroad center, that the rivers be developed to their utmost capacity for carrying freight from year end to year end. There is some excuse for a town, laboring under natural disadvantages, becoming discouraged and ceasing the struggle for advancement; but when a city enjoys the natural advantages of water transportation and has great railroad systems thrust upon her, it is then citizens should act concertedly and vigorously to realize the full benefit of these advantages. The congressman from this district should be impressed with the necessity of improving the rivers at this end as well as between Pittsburgh and Cincinnati, where enterprises are already approved, which will give those two cities year-around navigation.

Patrolman Morris, of the Third street beat, is learning how unpleasant it is to be a zealous policeman. One prominent attorney in police court denounced him; but we believe the attorney and the automobilists do the patrolman an injustice. He was provided with a stop watch and instructed by the chief to time and arrest all violators of the speed ordinance. We do not question the honesty of the automobilists, who, under oath in police court, declared they were not going at an inordinate speed. However, the same credit is due the patrolman. He is only doing his duty under instructions, and pedestrians can testify that in the last two weeks automobiles have been run at a greatly reduced speed. Patrolmen elsewhere than South Third street are carrying stop watches now and changing the speedway will only get speed-maniacs in more trouble.

MR. EWING DENIES.

Felix Ewing in another column on this page denounces as false the statement in Washington dispatches to this paper that he was present, fighting the repeal of the six-cent international revenue tax on tobacco. We cheerfully publish Mr. Ewing's denial. We, of course, do not know the source from which the statement emanated; but as Mr. Ewing was in Tennessee at the time, we accept his alibi and assent to the falsehood of the dispatch. As to the merits of the controversy, we are not prepared to agree that the repeal will be an unalloyed blessing to the farmer. We observe that Mr. Aldrich, representative of the tobacco trust, is not opposing the repeal, while the independent competitors of the trust are fighting it. It would not be advantageous to the farmer to injure the trust's competitors.

SOME STORIES

AROUND TOWN

Mr. John T. Barkley, of Troy, Tenn., and son Frank Barkley of Dyer, Tenn., are visiting Mr. W. E. Barkley, of 1611 Monroe street. Mr. John T. Barkley's son, Mr. J. T. Barkley, is a Confederate veteran, and during the war he fought all around in this vicinity under General Forrest. This is his first visit to Paducah since war times. Mr. Barkley is a man 76 years old and very active. He says that he never intends to get old. He is a civil officer in the county in which he lives in Tennessee.

They were in the grand stand at the races yesterday and he was keeping the record on a score card. She was greatly interested, though not entirely enlightened as to the meaning of it all. When he went down to get some "dope" he left the score card in her hand, and presently the megaphone from the judges' stand announced "time 2:20 flat."

She turned a mystified countenance to a young lady behind her.

"What does '2:20 flat' mean?" she inquired.

"Why, it means no fractions," was the reply.

She said "thank you" and returned to the contemplation of her card.

She made no marks on it, and again she turned and asked:

"How do you write it?"

"Let me show you," kindly agreed the young lady on the tier above, and accepting the proffered card and pencil, the young lady made some marks on the card and handed it back.

She took it back and looked at it intently a moment, and then her face beamed with the light of newly acquired knowledge.

"O, you mark it just like music, don't you?"

"Yes," said the knowing young thing in the tier above, "if I hadn't understood music I couldn't have marked it."

Anyone who associates with spirits has to be just as careful as he is of his human company. One Paducah gentleman is keenly interested in planchette, but he is grieved just now because his favorite board has fallen into bad company. It happened this way. He was working with it the other night, when planchette spelled out:

"General Howard says General Longstreet is in trouble and wants help. He is in hell."

Then it proceeded:

"General Longstreet says for General Howard to go to H—- He doesn't need his help."

This all came out in nice company, and the demonstrator was greatly annoyed, because some of those present thought it was mental telepathy and others attributed it to natural causes, such as the fingers obeying the mind; but he said no, he had neither thought of the two famous generals nor of their possible abiding place. He says it is the influence of evil spirits on planchette, and unless it can mend its ways and quit talking so rough he will have to desist.

STATE PRESS.

Courier-Journal.

The indications are that the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy railroad system is making rapid preparations to enter Southern territory. The extension now under consideration is from Herrin, Ill., to Paducah, Ky., crossing the Ohio river at Metropolis, Ill., twelve miles below Paducah. Surveys have been made and extensive purchases of property at Metropolis for terminal purposes were effected some time ago. The articles of incorporation, which have been filed in Illinois, give the name of the road as the Herrin Southern, but all the incorporators are officials of the Burlington system. Chicago is named as headquarters of the corporation. It is probable that articles will be filed in Kentucky at an early date.

The ultimate object of the Burlington is said to be to reach the Gulf of Mexico. The building of a 300-mile link will give it the desired connection. It will thus be in shape to handle Panama canal business when the big ditch is completed. The distance from Herrin, Ill., to Metropolis is fifty-seven miles.

Work on this section of the road is expected to begin at once. The plans contemplate the building of a double track bridge across the Ohio river at Metropolis. The extension to Paducah will be about twelve miles in length and the distance from Paducah to the Tennessee state line would be approximately forty-five miles.

The project is of importance to Kentucky and the south. It would add materially to Kentucky's railway mileage and the building of another bridge across the Ohio river would bring in a handsome revenue to the state treasury. The road would be of immeasurable benefit to Paducah, which long has felt the want of additional railroad outlets to the north.

The building of the Panama canal is likely to attract the attention of several of the large railway systems of the north and to bring about extensions to southern territory. Kentucky, by reason of her geographical position, is likely to profit by some of these extensions. Having resources and prosperous cities that in themselves present many inducements to capital, there is every reason to believe that the state will share bounteously in the future railway development of the south.

The Burlington seems to be the first big system to the north of us to enter upon a definite plan for a southern branch with a view to Panama canal business. It is to be hoped that others will take advantage of the opportunity to aid and participate in the prosperity of the southern states and, incidentally, to become better acquainted with Kentucky.

Lexington Gazette.

A correspondent calls attention to matter, which, in his opinion, needs to be taken up in earnest. He suggests that it is high time for the officials to take some action to enforce the laws against speeding automobiles. He intimates that automobiles frequently go fifteen to twenty miles an hour in the middle of the busiest districts of the city. The Gazette is not prepared to say whether there is a basis for this complaint or not, but the laws against speeding automobiles ought to be enforced. No man has the right to endanger the safety of others, and, without prejudice against the owners of automobiles, The Gazette does not hesitate to say that they should be compelled to maintain a rate of speed in the city that is not dangerous to others.

The automobile is constantly becoming a more popular means of conveyance. The number of automobiles in Lexington and Central Kentucky has greatly increased during the last few months, and this emphasizes the necessity for the enforcement of the speed laws. Reasonable persons who own automobiles recognize the reasonableness of the speed limit and it is no hardship to require automobile drivers to respect the law.

In many parts of the country there has been at times almost a fanatical prejudice against the automobile on the part of those who have little chance to become automobile owners. If the owners of horses and carriages were reckless in the use of them, they would develop a like prejudice. It is really to the interest of the whole automobile industry and the owners of automobiles to have the speed laws enforced. The Gazette has no doubt the chief of police is prepared to exercise all of the authority the laws confer upon him in this respect.

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE.

Mr. Ewing Protests.

To The Evening Sun:
Information has been received from an authentic source at Washington, that opponents to the Hon. A. O. Stanley's amendment to the tariff bill now pending (which has for its purpose the removal of the six cents tax on raw leaf tobacco) have introduced to the senate committee and the public some may named Ewing as opposed to the removal of this tax and are actively scattering broadcast the report that Felix G. Ewing, the general manager of the Planters' Protective association is in Washington city fighting the removal of this tax. Such an infamous fraud cannot but have the effect of a "boomerang" upon those who attempted its perpetration and to fill the minds of honest men with disgust as soon as the fact is ascertained.

It is well known that the association, with which Mr. Ewing is connected and originated, has at all times kept up the fight for the repeal of this tax through its representatives in the house and senate, this being the third time it has passed the lower house. Hon. A. O. Stanley has been indefatigable in his efforts in behalf of his constituent members of this association, and the removal of this tax has been one of the three departments into which the work of the association has been divided.

One department was the removal of this tax; another was to encourage the restraint of the American Tobacco company in its depredations upon the liberties of the people through the process of the federal court, and a third was to maintain a fair price by organization.

The association planters have always stressed the injustice of this tax because it is the only agricultural product in the United States which is taxed in the raw state, and second

THE DOCTORS AGREE.

Two Physicians Both Agree on the New Scientific Dandruff Treatment

Dr. J. M. Powell, of Spokane, Wash., says: "Herpicide has given good satisfaction in my family for dandruff."

Dr. W. G. Alban, of Walla Walla, Wash., says: "I find Herpicide all that is claimed for it as a dandruff cure. I shall prescribe it." Dandruff is a germ disease and you can't cure it unless you kill the dandruff germ; and you can't do that unless you use Newbro's Herpicide, the only preparation in the world that destroys the parasites. A delightful hair dressing; allays itching instantly; makes hair glossy and soft as silk. It is a sure dandruff destroyer. Sold by leading druggists. because some very high authorities, on the operation of the internal revenue laws, say that it is more a department regulation for the conveyance of the systematizing of the work of the revenue department, than it is a law, which forbids the planter from selling tobacco otherwise, than by his own hand, without the imposition of this tax.

A planter can travel and peddle his own tobacco crude, but his son or his wife or clerk could not do it for him.

The privilege is therefore practically cut out, because in his own country everybody has tobacco like himself, and he cannot peddle it successfully there. He cannot stay at home and make the crop and go off to distant states to peddle it, therefore his opportunities are so greatly restricted as to practically ruin the possibility of his making a success of it.

The planter remembers that he can appoint a power of attorney to do almost anything else for him; to sign a check or even a deed to land is not unusual, therefore he feels very keenly the injustice of this restriction, which forbids his appointment of an agent to sell tobacco for him raised on his own land, and just as corn or wheat or potatoes might be sold.

The association has imbedded in its make-up, those principles which demand that as citizens, its members shall share all the privileges and opportunities other citizens enjoy and is determined upon keeping alive its purpose and its rights under the law until this shall have been accomplished.

HOT ROAST

ALL PATRIOTIC ORDERS RIDICULED BY BISHOP.

Rev. C. D. Williams, of Michigan, Chides D. A. R. and Other Societies for "Buncombe."

New York, July 6.—"For the most part organizations for mutual admiration which indulge in harmless patriotic buncombe, such as teaching kindergartens of foreign children to go through flag drills and sing 'The Star-Spangled Banner,' was the way Right Rev. Charles D. Williams, D. D., bishop of the Episcopal diocese of Michigan, defined the Daughters of the American Revolution. He also put in this class the Sons of the American Revolution, the Colonial Dames, the Order of Cincinnati and 'ad infinitum,' as he expressed it.

Rebukes False Patriotism.
The bishop made these remarks in a sermon at St. Bartholomew's Episcopal church here as he rebuked the American people for what he termed false patriotism.

We affect democratic simplicity and appear to despise pride in aristocratic descent, the bishop said, but on the other hand, organize societies such as he named for just the opposite purpose. He pointed out that while making a great show of patriotism, the bishop said that the people of the United States refuse to take up the simplest obligations of their citizenship. They would not "soil their dainty fingers with dirty politics" even in the effort to make them clean, he said.

Sees No Pride as Sin.
He diagnosed latter-day troubles as follows: "This false patriotism of pride in our past and blind confidence in our future has so possessed the popular mind that he who ventures to criticize our national character makes himself a prey of popular fury and scorn. The greatest need of America today is a line of prophets to convince us of our sins—sins that are palpably manifest to all who are not willfully blind, sins which have invariably, throughout the whole course of history, brought in their train the decline and fall of nations."

BUSY DAY

MAINLY DEVOTED TO ADMINISTRATION PROVISIONS.

Tobacco Schedule to Be Subject of Debate Again in a Day or Two.

Washington, July 6.—The fourth of July was the senate's busy day.

The day was devoted in the main to consideration of the administration provisions of the tariff bill and to the Brown resolution providing for the submission of the question of an income tax to the legislatures of the various states, which, while not a part of the tariff bill, is so related to it as to have made it necessary to consider it in connection with the bill. The best fight of the day was made by Raynor, against the custom's court feature of the administrative amendment.

He undertook to puncture the provision, and made a long speech in which he set forth with much emphasis the declaration that the court would be found to be unconstitutional because while dealing with questions in common law, it makes no provision for trial by jury, which he said every suitor under the common law has a right to demand.

Criticized Aldrich.
He sharply criticized Aldrich, whom he frequently reminded that he was not a lawyer and could not be expected to understand legal and constitutional questions.

The provision was defended by a number of Republican lawyers, but it said he had not favored the creation of such court. The provision occupied attention for about three hours and ultimately was accepted without a division, though not until it had been amended in accordance with Raynor's suggestion so as to exclude criminal cases from its operation.

The proposed court is to consist of three members and it is intended to supersede the United States circuit courts in customs matters.

Not since the tariff bill had come up to the senate has so much been accomplished within a day. When the voting ended a summary of the proceedings showed that there was very little left to be done. The principal item still to be considered is the tobacco tax figures on which had not been completed by the committee when the senate adjourned.

Attention was given to the drawback feature of the bill, relative to which the finance committee made no recommendation beyond striking out the house provision.

EVA KISSED GROSSMAN.

Irrepressible Tanguy Embraces Man Under Judge's Nose.

New York, July 6.—Lawyer Moses H. Grossman was a foot taller when he emerged from the Far Rockaway police court. Eva Tanguy, the irrepressible, kissed Moses right upon the mouth, right in the presence of the court and right under the nose of Magistrate Gilroy, who had adjudged her innocent of violating the Sunday theatrical law at Morrison Music Hall Sunday night.

Miss Tanguy played to a full court room, for it had been heralded far and wide that she was to tell a few things about prudes and the like when put on trial.

Mr. Grossman had an easy time of it convincing the magistrate that Miss Tanguy really did nothing to shock the religious sentiments of Far Rockaway when she appeared in tights.

When the court decision was announced the fair Eva stooped, picked Moses up and gave him a smack that sounded like the report of a revolver. When asked if that was part of his fee, Mr. Grossman blushed and retorted: "No, a gratuity." Miss Tanguy left humming what sounded very much like "I don't care."

RUTHERFORD STUYVESANT DIES

Ambassador White's Brother-in-Law Stricken Walking in Paris.

Paris, July 6.—Rutherford Stuyvesant, brother of Mrs. Henry White, wife of the American ambassador, died suddenly this afternoon. He went for his customary morning walk in the Champs Elysees, but was overcome and was assisted to a restaurant. He was just able to give his name and address when he fainted and was conveyed to his residence in a state of collapse.

Physicians found that Mr. Stuyvesant was suffering from an acute attack of angina pectoris and that his case was hopeless. He died within a few hours.

As a consequence of the death the Fourth of July celebration which was to have been held at the American embassy has been cancelled.

Mr. Stuyvesant was 49 years old. He was a director of the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York and was a member of many yacht and other clubs.

Mr. Stuyvesant and the Countess de Warransee were married at St. George's chapel, London, on June 19, 1902.

What did Mrs. Crane say about Wilson's fountain? She told the truth whatever it was.

THE AMERICAN PURCHASES THIS YEAR OVER $10,000,000.

Exports Fall Off About $200,000,000—Iron and Steel Products.

Washington, July 6.—Not even the most serious adverse trade conditions have been sufficient to check the growing demand of Americans for diamonds and other precious stones, according to a bulletin just issued by the bureau of statistics of the department of commerce and labor in regard to the foreign commerce of the United States for the fiscal year 1935.

During the year the exports of the United States fell off about $200,000,000 from those of the year before, yet about $10,000,000 more in diamonds and other precious stones were imported to America than during the preceding year. In all, the imports for 1935 are estimated roughly to have been about $100,000,000 more than those for 1934. The figures have proved a shock to the theorists who held that during hard times luxuries are sacrificed first.

The increase in imports occurred chiefly in manufacturers' materials, but in no considerable degree also in foodstuffs, while manufactures ready for consumption showed a marked falling off. The decrease in exports occurred in all the great groups—foodstuffs, crude, showing a fall of about $50,000,000; foodstuffs, manufactured, a fall of about $30,000,000; crude material for manufacturing, a fall of about $35,000,000; manufactures for use in manufacturing, a fall of about $36,000,000, and manufactures ready for consumption, a fall of about $50,000,000.

The principal decrease in exports was in manufactures of iron and steel, where the fall is estimated at $41,000,000. The falling off in the case of exports was due generally to a decline in quantity, although a notable exception was incotons, where the price declined.

ASPECT GAIN IN IMPORTS

Official Figures Indicate Less Exports This Year Than Last.

Washington, July 6.—Official figures of the import and export trade of the United States, giving in detail the eleven months, ending with May, 1935, indicate the imports of the fiscal year ending with June, 1935, will exceed those of last year by about $200,000,000 below those of last year.

The increase in imports occurs chiefly in manufacturers' materials. The decrease in exports occurs in all the great groups—foodstuffs, crude, showing a fall of about $50,000,000; foodstuffs, manufactured, $30,000,000; crude material for manufacturing, $35,000,000; manufactures for use in manufacturing, $36,000,000, and manufactures ready for consumption, $50,000,000.

The principal articles in which the increase in importations occurs are: Hides and skins, $20,000,000; wool, $17,000,000; raw silk, $15,000,000; india rubber, $22,000,000; coffee, about, $14,000,000; sugar, $15,500,000, and diamonds and other precious stones, about $10,000,000.

The decrease in exports occurs chiefly in live cattle, a drop of $11,000,000; corn, $9,000,000; wheat, $28,000,000; flour, $11,000,000; meat and dairy products, $27,000,000; manufactures of iron and steel, $41,000,000; copper pigs, bars, etc., $20,000,000; cars for steam railways, $5,000,000; wood and manufactures thereof, $14,000,000, and raw cotton, $19,000,000.

TOLERANCE IN RELIGION.

We Have Passed Day of Proscription in Religion.

Norwich, Conn., July 6.—President Taft was the chief figure in the celebration of the two hundred and fiftieth anniversary of this historic old New England town. In an address to the people, after a fine military parade and civic display, the president, finding a theme in the church influence in the foundation of the town, took occasion to express his views on the liberty of religious belief. He pleaded that every man should be allowed to worship God in his own way. The president declared, amid laughter, that the American forefathers came to this country ostensibly to escape religious tolerance, but as a matter of fact in order that they might follow out their own religious ideas in their own way and with a large degree of intolerance toward any other form of belief. We have passed beyond that now," said the president, "and are coming more and more to realize the right of the individual to worship God as he may choose."

He Made It Lively Before He Died. Kansas City, Kas., July 6.—Jasper Jackson, colored, was shot by John Kraft while creating a disturbance in Kraft's store last night. He was arrested and taken to a hospital. He jumped from the operating table and attacked Dr. Bret Davis, who was dressing his wound. Policemen and physicians were unable to subdue the negro. Clubbing him on the head was ineffective. A policeman fired three shots, but the negro continued to struggle and wrested a club and revolver from the officer and then dropped dead. The doctor was wounded in the groin seriously by a stray bullet.

Deposed Sultan's Money Will Be Used For Army. London, July 6.—A dispatch to the Daily Mail from the Salonica states that ex-Sultan Abdul Hamid has given the government a check for $5,000,000 in addition to the sums he has been forced to disgorge.

He stipulated that $3,000,000 of the $5,000,000 should be used to purchase his present residence, the Villa Allatini, on his account, but this was refused on the ground that, as he is the nation's prisoner, he has no right to own property.

The whole sum therefore will be devoted to the needs of the second and third army corps.

STRIKE LEADERS ARRESTED.

Japanese Laborer Accuses Strikers of Kidnaping Him.

Honolulu, July 6.—Considerable excitement was created by the arrest of two more of the leaders of the Japanese plantation laborers, who are on strike, for the alleged false imprisonment of T. Sunodai, a Japanese employed on the Walpahu plantation on a profit-sharing basis. Following the arrests an investigation was set in motion which disclosed the fact that the 2,500 Japanese still on strike have picketed the portion of the city about their quarters and prevented any person not connected or in sympathy with the movement from entering the camp of the strikers. The charge on which the arrests were made was that strike-breakers had been kidnapped.

Sundoo was seized yesterday in the vicinity of the strikers' camp and alleges that his captors took him to a room in a Japanese house where he was kept by force while his case was put on trial before certain officers of the Wainpahu branch of the Japanese higher wage association.

The attitude taken by the Japanese consul and Admiral Iijima of the Japanese training squadron now in the harbor in regard to this new development, is believed here to eliminate any possibility of international complications.

BLIND SENATOR A "SIGHTSEER."

Gore's Wife His Eyes at Wright's Flights and Ball Games.

Washington, July 6.—Through going to Fort Myer repeatedly to "see" the Wright brothers fly their airplane, Senator Gore, the blind statesman from Oklahoma, is becoming one of the most pronounced aeronautic enthusiasts in Washington.

Senator Gore's substitute for the eyes he lost by a series of accidents during his youth is his wife and a keen sense of hearing, to both of which his mind is peculiarly attuned. From them he obtains the same thrill of excitement that others experience through first hand perception.

Few men in Washington are affected by the "atmosphere" of an event as Senator Gore. It helps him to comprehend the quiet words of his wife as she explains every movement of the aviators. When all this is concluded he is just as anxious to applaud as any other "spectator."

The senator is also very fond of "watching" a baseball game. He is a patron of the league games here, where Mrs. Gore helps him to follow the play closely, although his eyes cannot distinguish night from day.

ABDUL MAKES NATION GIFT.

Deposed Sultan's Money Will Be Used For Army.

London, July 6.—A dispatch to the Daily Mail from the Salonica states that ex-Sultan Abdul Hamid has given the government a check for $5,000,000 in addition to the sums he has been forced to disgorge.

He stipulated that $3,000,000 of the $5,000,000 should be used to purchase his present residence, the Villa Allatini, on his account, but this was refused on the ground that, as he is the nation's prisoner, he has no right to own property.

The whole sum therefore will be devoted to the needs of the second and third army corps.

Morse Going Abroad. New York, July 6.—Charles W. Morse returned from his home at Bath, Maine. It is generally understood he will go abroad if the court and bondsmen will consent. Several of his interests are controlled largely in Europe, and he thinks a visit there will greatly expedite straightening up his affairs.

NEW CROP WHEAT REACHES HIGH

LIKELY TO ATTRACT BIG RUN IF WEATHER HOLDS.

Provisions Go Up on Light Stocks of Product and Small Offerings of Hogs.

CORN AND OATS ARE EASIER

Chicago, July 6.—If wheat prices and the weather hold as at present it is reasonable to assume that there will soon be a substantial run of wheat to market here and elsewhere. This is the view of the most active of the cash grain handlers throughout the winter wheat belt. It will require a large line of the cash grain to fill contracts already made. It is estimated that the Patten following holds over 5,000,000 bushels, and there is every prospect that the leaders at least intend to accept delivery. Prospects are that milling demands for the new wheat will be much less than has heretofore been anticipated. The flour demand is not sufficient to warrant heavy immediate grinding, while carrying to a deferred month means a big loss.

Export inquiry for wheat is far better than had been anticipated at such a high level, but at that is spasmodic and rather unimportant as yet. It does not appear a much safer proposition for the European buyer to take hold at this level than for the domestic miller to stock up. There is no apparent urgent need abroad for large purchases at present, although, as usual, the trade is concerned over the prospective depletion of supplies the world over. Recent arrivals have for a number of weeks been far ahead of those of a year ago and shipping countries, notably India and Argentina, continue to forward grain quite freely.

Official Monthly Report Near.
On Thursday next, July 8, at 2 p. m., eastern time, the government will issue the crop report showing the condition of winter and spring wheat and the amount of wheat on the farms July 1. Much controversy has arisen over the government's estimate of 143,692,000 bushels of wheat, or 21.6 per cent of the previous year's crop, on hand March 1. On July 1 last year the stock on hand was down to 33,797,000 bushels, as compared to 55,000,000 bushels on hand a year before. The trade will be very much surprised if the July 1 stock this year is even as large as the very small total of a year ago.

The trade will watch the official report of condition of both winter and spring wheat with much interest. It now seems well established that the quality of the winter wheat that is now being harvested is excellent. It is the popular trade opinion also that the northwestern spring wheat crop has improved in condition during the last month. Last acreage reports of the government showed 46,172,000 acres winter and spring wheat, against 47,461,000 acres harvested last year. It is possible that a crop as large as last year's may be produced. In fact, the June 1 promise was for a total yield of 692,000,000 bushels against the harvested total of 665,000,000 bushels last year.

With stocks depleted the world over it is the view of the believer in higher prices that stringency will be apparent through much of the crop year. It must not be forgotten, however, that it is a new experience to begin the marketing of new wheat at such high levels, and it may materially affect the ultimate situation. Closing prices last week were 28c higher than a year ago for July, 22½¢ higher for September and 18½¢ higher for December.

Last week's net changes here were declines of 1¼¢ to 1¢. At the high point last week September wheat, now the most active trading future, was 5½¢ above the low figure reached June 17.

Corn Heavy in Tone.
Corn has displayed considerable heaviness during the latter part of last week, chiefly as the result of the fine crop outlook. The latter has led many producers in the southwest and west to market their old crop, and the latter is beginning at last to have a little adverse effect on values. Nevertheless, the pressure is not great as yet, although receivers and cash grain handlers in general confidently anticipate heavy marketings following the completion of harvest.

The government report next Thursday will give the initial estimate of the year on corn acreage and condition. The trade is expecting very high figures for each. The condition July 1 last year was $2.8 and acreage 105,996,000, as compared with $0.2 as condition and 99,931,000 acres as the July 1 showing a year ago. It will require but a very small percentage of increase on an area like that in corn to swell the crop prospect materially. The crop thus far has had practically no adversity and its July 1 condition should be high. Changes in prices last week included declines of 1¼¢ to 2½¢.

Downward Trend in Oats.
Fairly large stocks of old oats here, continued normal receipts and fine prospects for the growing crop in all directions have combined to weaken the market. Liquidation has been under way from miscellaneous sources for some time and values have declined considerably. The government report will probably show a fairly high condition for the growing crop July 1. The June report indicated a yield of slightly more than 1,000,000 bushels. Price changes last week showed net losses of 2@3¼¢. July leading the decline.

SAGE FOR DARKENING THE HAIR.

There is nothing new about the idea of using sage for restoring the color of the hair. Our great grandmothers kept their locks soft, dark and glossy by using a "sage tea." Whenever their hair fell out or took on a dull, faded or streaked appearance, they made a brew of sage leaves and applied it to their hair with wonderfully beneficial effect. Nowadays we don't have to resort to the old-time, tiresome method of gathering the herbs and making the brew. This is done by skillful chemists better than we could do it ourselves, and all we have to do is to call for the ready made product, Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur, containing sage in the proper strength, with the addition of Sulphur, another old-time scalp remedy. This preparation is sold by all first-class druggists for 50c and $1.00 a bottle, or is sent direct by the Wyeth Chemical Company, 74 Cortlandt St., New York City, upon receipt of price. For sale and recommended by W. J. Gilbert.

FREE 15 YEARS ASKS A PARDON

ESCAPED FROM PRISON ON EVE OF EXECUTION.

Will Surprise Country When Identity is Known—Was Accused of Murder—Made Fortune.

HE IS HIGHLY RESPECTED

Atlanta, Ga., July 6.—Will Myers, who escaped from the Atlanta jail in 1894, on the eve of his execution for the murder of Forest Crowley, and who has since eluded the authorities, has written a letter to Governor Brown, asserting that he is innocent of murder and asking a pardon.

Myers says that his family gave one of the employees $1,500 to allow him to escape. He claims that he went direct to Cuba, and says:

"I remained in Cuba for one year, when I returned to this country, to the state of Georgia, where I remained until the outbreak of the Spanish-American war, when I enlisted in the Third regiment, U. S. V., known as Ray's Immunes. I was a member of that country. I was mustered out of service at Macon, Ga., May 2, 1899.

"I then came into some money through my grandfather. I settled down to business. I am married and have three children. I am prosperous and of good standing in my locality."

Walked Out of Jail.

After stating that he was a delegate to the Georgia convention that nominated Governor Brown, Myers says:

"I was only 25 years old when I escaped. I am now 40. Transformation in my personal appearance is so great I have no fear of detection. I am safe, so far as that goes, yet I have that fear eternally hugging at my heart that I am a hunted criminal. If I only had my liberty I could convince the world that I did not kill Crowley. If you will pardon me, governor, the world will be surprised to see who I am and what a good citizen I have made."

AT PLATTSBURG

PLEA FOR CIVIC ZEAL IS MADE BY CARDINAL.

In Address at Champlain Celebration Mgr. Gibbons Points to Opportunities.

Plattsburg, N. Y., July 6.—On both sides of the quiet waters of Lake Champlain in New York and Vermont, the preliminary arrangements for the tercentenary are complete. In fact, the celebration commemorating the three hundredth anniversary of the discovery of the lake by Samuel Champlain began with appropriate services in the churches. At Cliff Haven, near here, on the grounds of the Catholic summer school, a pontifical mass was celebrated in the open air. Cardinal Gibbons, of Baltimore, was the principal speaker.

Cardinal Draws Lesson.
"We are assembled," he said, "to pay honor to the memory of the illustrious Samuel Champlain, who, three centuries ago discovered the lake which bears his name. Champlain was filled with an apostolic spirit and was burning with zeal for the conversion of the aboriginal tribes of North America. We may judge of his spirit by the sentiment ascribed to him, that 'the conversion of one soul was of more importance than the finding of an empire.'"

The cardinal then dwelt upon the sacrifices by other French missionaries.
"My brethren," he continued, "if these men accomplished so much in carrying the gospel to the heathen when they had no ships but frail canoes, no roads, but eternal snows, virgin forests and desert wastes, when they had no compass but the naked eye, no guide but faith and hope and God—if they effected so much in their day, how much more should not we be able to accomplish in our times by the aid of steamships and railroads and other appliances of modern civilization."

Pleads for Civic Zeal.

In conclusion the cardinal gave the following advice to his hearers: " Cherish a deep and abiding love for your country and her institutions. No man should be a drone in the social beehive! No citizen should be an indifferent spectator of the moral, social, economic and political issues which affect the public welfare. As you are all protected in your life and property by the arm of a strong and enlightened government so should you all according to the measure of your ability sustain the hands of the ship of state.

"Above all, take an active, personal, vital interest in all that concerns the welfare of religion, without which the republic cannot endure."

The world's stock of gold money is practically 75 per cent more than a decade ago.

INDIGNANT THAT HE WILL NOT MAKE ATTEMPT.

Was Offered $1,000, But Will Rescure Without Compensation on Trip to Arctic Regions.

New York, July 6.—Herbert L. Bridgeman, who sails this week for the Arctic regions in the schooner Jeanie, expressed his anger at reports that he would not attempt to rescue Dr. Frederick A. Cook, the Brooklyn physician.

"My remarks to the representative of a certain publication have been distorted for the purpose of making a sensation," said Mr. Bridgeman.

"The Cook relief association offered me $1,000 to bring back Dr. Cook. I told them I would bring him back anyway, without any charge. I said I was going to the Arctic regions and would be glad to bring the doctor back.

"The Cook commission was in bad straits. It had essayed to raise $30,000 to float a relief expedition and had secured $1,000. My offer to bring back the doctor gratis was refused, the committee insisting on giving me the money they had raised. I expect to get a check in a few days, but am not in a hurry."

At Wallace Park.
An original, out-of-ordinary and comical act is that which is being presented by Paul LeDrew, assisted by "Jerry, the Duck," at Wallace park Casino this week. The act drew many laughs and much applause from the people who witnessed it. On account of one of the acts booked this week for the Casino not showing up, Miss Ruby Detzel filled the gap with a neat singing turn and received much applause. The pictures shown, a story of the last days of Poland, were appropriate for the day and offered some beautiful views. Same program is presented tonight again. There will also be the usual Tuesday night dance at the pavilion.

New York, July 6.—Martin J. Sheridan, of the Irish-American Athletic club, the world's best all-around athlete, increased his famous point score of 7,130½ to 7,385 in the championship contest of the Amateur Athletic Union.

Sheridan won nine out of ten events in the all around program. His only opponent, Theodore L. Matzges, of the West Side Y. M. C. A., New York, took the tenth and last event, one mile run, easily. In the pole vault for height clearing the bar at 10 feet 9 inches.

Before a crowd of 3,000 people the first day of the three days' racing of the Paducah Fair association opened auspiciously yesterday afternoon. Despite the fact that the weather was unusually warm and oppressive the crowd remained in a good humor, and a majority regained until the last running race was history. The weather was hard on the horses. Two died before the crowd left the course. Most of the races were hard fought, especially the running matches, which had a good number of entries. A number of things handicapped the races, but the delays between races were shorter than usual and the officials kept the horses moving lively, which was appreciated by the spectators. Good order was maintained by the special police, and there was nothing to mar the pleasure of the day. The course was kept clear.

T. W. Anderson, of Commerce, Mo., was the victim of an unusual streak of bad luck. At the end of the second heat Miss Golden dropped dead as the result of heart failure and exhaustion. In the first heat of the free-for-all pace, he was driving Joe Brown and when passing the first eighth mile his sulky bounded against a rock and struck another sulky and Anderson was thrown from the seat. Fortunately he was not injured, although his escape was close. Joe Brown continued the heat without the driver and was in second place, but finished fourth. Joe Brown was drawn at the beginning of the third heat, owing to an attack of the "thumps." Daisy Lee was owned by E. W. McFadden, of Mt. Vernon, Ind.

Runners.
As usual the running races proved exciting and fascinating to the crowd. The three running races were started without a barrier, and the work of Starter Field W. Scholler, of Franklin, Ind., was pleasing to the crowd. Mr. Scholler is a starter, who knows his business, and enforces every rule. The judges' stand was cleared of every person except the seven officials, and all of the horses were given good starts.

Mr. Scholler possesses a strong, clear voice and his announcements were heard well in the grandstand. This is the first time that he has been on a Kentucky track and he was well pleased at the reception and treatment accorded him. He has presided on many of the circuits in the northern states. He and Dr. J. V. Voris are old friends, and while in the city he is the guest of Dr. Voris.

Daisy Lee was second, Miss Penelope was third and Henry Wilkes was flagged. Time of heat 2:22 1/4.

S.S.S. PURIFIES BAD BLOOD

Bad blood is responsible for most of our ailments, and when from any cause it becomes infected with impurities, humors or poisons, trouble in some form is sure to follow. Muddy, sallow complexions, eruptions, pimples, etc., show that the blood is infected with unhealthy humors which have changed it from a pure, fresh stream to a sour, acrid fluid, which forces out its impurities through the pores and glands of the skin. A very common evidence of bad blood is sores and ulcers, which break out on the flesh, often from a very insignificant bruise, or even scratch or abrasion. If the blood was healthy the place would heal at once; but being infected with impurities which are discharged into the wound, irritation and inflammation are set up, the fibres and tissues are broken, and the sore continues until the blood is purified of the cause. S. S. S. is Nature's blood-purifier and tonic, made entirely from roots, herbs and barks. It goes down into the circulation and removes every particle of impurity, humor or poison, restores lost vitality, and steadily tones up the entire system. S. S. S. neutralizes any excess of acid in the blood, making it pure, fresh and healthy, and permanently cures Eczema, Acne, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Boils, and all other skin eruptions or disease. Book on the blood and any medical advice free.

Notes of the Track.
The track was unusually heavy for the harness races yesterday, but for the running races it was in fine shape. Considering the disadvantages of the track the time in some of the heats was excellent.

Miss Golden was almost dead before the 2:30 trot was finished. Mr. Anderson said she was gone when he passed the eighth pole, but he held her up, and the line was crossed. A short distance away, and she dropped dead.

The bookies did a rushing business yesterday. The performance of Lady J., the green pacer of J. S. Culver, Lovelaceville, attracted as much attention from real horsemen as any other animal at the races yesterday. She carried off the honors of the green race with ease, apparently able to let out considerably more speed if necessary. She is a daughter of Jaywood, son of Jaybird, with a record of 2:06 1/4. The race was made in 2:40 and Mr. Culver held her in all the time. She could have been driven easily in 2:25 on the heavy track on the sultry day.

To Freshen Flowers.
If cut flowers from the florist's or garden are placed as soon as possible in cold water in which a little mild soap has been dissolved, making suds, they will keep fresh much longer than usual, and will even freshen up wonderfully if they have already drooped. Also, if one wishes to keep roses in bud for some time a soft thread should be tied snugly around the bud, and when ready for use, even though several days after picking, the rose will be found as snug a bud as when first tied up and, moreover, will not shatter as soon as ordinarily.—Woman's Home Companion.
